Quier-of Eighteenth Street, Who Wants to Be Re-elected, Finds Maself Confronted by Two Rival Candidates.

SAUSAGE-MAKERS IN LINE.

Nothing of Mark Hanna, Also Taking a Hand in the Great Battle of Ballots.

hteenth street from Third avenue to the East River is aflame with politi-cal fervor. The "Mayor of Eighteenth street" is to be voted for to-morrow night in Zimmerman's Hall, No. 307 First avenue, after an exciting canvass that started immediately following Election Day, and has continued with un abated fury since. There are three es timable candidates in the field. They ard "Marty" Costello, who has reigne in the exalted position of Mayor of Eighteenth street for two successive Elighteenth street for two successive terms and has a following that extends DYSPEPSIA the length and breadth of First avenue; 'Jack' Ryan, the plasterer and chimney builder, whose enemies declare he is an Opportunist, but who claims to have the backing of organized labor, and Herr John Conrad Dern, "der little Schneider," who is a bona fide resident of Eighteenth street, and is making his play for election under the emblem of the Eagle. He has been promised the support of the Sausage Builders' Verein and the Schneider Scheutzen Bund.
"Mayor" Costello Indignant.

Mayor Costello was affronted when these two opponents were thrust into the field against him. His pride was wounded, he declared, "For," said he, when the nominations were announced, "haven't I bin the best Mayor Eighteent strate has iver had? I kin lick anny man in th' ward, but whin yez k me up agin two handy min each th a wallop and a side step, how in the name of ivery thing sacred in the gas-house distrect am I goin' to win? But, be golly, I'll make me foight, sink or swim," and Mayor Costello threw back his shoulders, rolled up his coat sleeves until the red flannel of his shirt howed conspicuously and declared that he was ready to meet all comers or, more to his liking, his two adversaries, in a twenty-two-foot ring or "down on th' dock beyant" he exclaimed.

When Costello's defl was communi-cated to Candidates "Schneider" Dern and "Chimney Builder" Ryan, they discussed Costello's attitude with no little expression of concern.

"Dot Costello, der Mayor of der street, is a bad man, ain't it?" whispered Sonnelder Dern. "He vants to vin dot electioning by his fists und feet. I beliefe. Velt, I am no rowdyism, I let the people know. I am up for dare suffrage, und dot's what tells der story. Dot Castello can go down by der dock und serup mit himself until der tide comes in, for what I care, but dot ain't no way to win by der people, ain't it?"

to win by der people, ain't it?"

"Quite right," said Opportunist Ryan.
"Me labor constituency wouldn't stand for it a minute. No decent man would fake such a proposition. Besides, this is an enlightened age, and the people want enlightened men in office, not scrappers."

Ryan spoke with a dignified air and then invited all hands into Casey's.

Costello sees in the friendly relationship which exists between Ryan and Devn a combination of interests to defeat him.

"I know their thricks." he shouted to."

Dern a combination of interests to defeat him.

"If know their thricks." he shouted to dere him to a group of his following. "They can have all the sasige builders' veries, the beer stube hall gangs and the fake plasterers and children workers in the city, but I'll do them at the polls to morrow night or there'll be a wake in Eighteenth street. If I couldn't bate a knifor or a plasterer I go into Zimmerman's cellar and stay there for the rest of me matural life. I'd be ashamed to be seen on First avenue except on April Fool's Day. That fellow Ryan and that poor little dupe of a tailor Dern, who makes good clothes I admit, but who would make a bum Mayor—are combined for no good purpose.

In the day are using Munyon's little cures dyspepsia. It cures dyspepsia. It cures catarrh. It makes rich blood. It quiets the rerves. It brings restful sleep. It creates a healthy appetite and takes away the longing for stimulars of any kind.

Dern, who makes good clothes I admit, but who would make a bum Mayor-are combined for no good purpose.

"Ryan has a strong holt with Mark Hanna, and I have it from the inside that Hanna came to New York the other day for no other purpose than to help Ryan to beat me. Sure the way them fellers are beating around the bush it lobks to me as if they were trying to finke a tie vote of it so that the pair of them will be elected. A pretty sight, street, at one and the same time, and loss corry, there isn't the makings of a good Mayor in the two of them."

And while the trio of candidates are axing wroth over the contest the Eighenth Ward is watching the outcome with keen interest. The canvass has been exciting, and to-morrow night when the balloting begins in Zimmerman's field the fun will begin, too. The eligible electors are bona fide residents of Dighteenth street from Third avenue to the East River, male children of matureige of former residents of the street no master how remote their residence may ave been established or under what ge of former residents of the street no astter how remote their residence may lave been established or under what ircumstances, all former residents who yer transacted business on Eighteenth treet, and any resident of the ward tho ever walked or drove through Eighteenth street.

who ever walked or drove through Elghteenth street.

To Use Secret Ballots.

The secret ballot alone will be used.
Tammanv Printer and former Excise forms of the ballots in regulation style, and a canvass booth has alredy been rected in the hall for the use of the oters. There has been take of charges of colonization by the candidates and sheir friends, and signed statements to he effect that "Schneider" Dern has seen in conference with Platt and odell. Costello made the charge while addressing a meeting of the Italian esidents of the ward.

"I know that Dern, who has a goates like a goat and uses his whiskers for our strainers, met Odell and Platt at he Frith Avenne Hotel the other night. To and ask him why?"

Then appealing to the crowd Mayor costello declared: "Why shouldn't yez yote for me? Wasn't me grandfather an tystalian? He kem over with Christopher Columbus in the Mayflower, and to Zemmerman's on time and don't let.

Duling the recent official election the hard candidates voted and worked for the election of Col. McClellan Sut all pairs, lines have been exached in the present canvass. Costello says he will as to Ryan and Da'n.

WHEN PICKETING IS LAWFUL. DEBLIN, Nov. 24.—The Prussian Su-breum Court has decided that strike LARGE DOUBLE STORE icketing is lawful if conducted from a ot objectionable to the tenant. A policeman at Posen ordered a picket not only, to leave the street in which was the strike locality, but to leave the presence of the picket thereupon entered a saloon immediately opposite the entrance of the strike locality, and the question of his right to remain there have up in court proceedings.

system contaminated by the catarrhal poison, then the sufferer begins to realize what a disgusting and sickengusting and sickengusting and sickendary disease Catarrhal stone of the sufference of the sufference is. It affects the kidneys and stomach as well as other parts of the body. It is a constitutional disease and as inhaling mixtures, salves, ointments, etc., are never more than palliative or helpful, even in the beginning of Catarrh, what can you expect from such treatment when it becomes chronic and the whole system affected? Only such a remedy as S. S. S. can reach this obstinate, deep-seated disease and purge the blood of the catarrhal poison. S. S. S. purifies and builds up the diseased blood, and the inflamed membranes are healed and the excessive secretion of mucus ceases when new, rich blood is coming to the diseased parts, and a permanent cure is the result. S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and a reliable remedy for
